

J.C. Restoration Recognized for Business Excellence, Ceremony in March

NAPERVILLE IL (March 2008) -- The Business Ledger has announced its list of 2009 Annual Awards for Business Excellence honorees, with J.C. Restoration being chosen as one such business.

The Annual Awards for Business Excellence (AABE) are presented every spring to deserving companies, institutions, agencies, associations and organizations. Honorees from twenty unique business segments are selected based upon criteria that establish the honorees as businesses that have forged a strong commitment to business success as well as to the welfare of their employees, the satisfaction of their clients and customers, and the development of their respective communities.
